

A powerful case has been made for emotional intelligence and its role in leadership. As Annie McKee and Richard Boyatzis showed in their best-selling books, Primal Leadership and Resonant Leadership, the best leaders use their emotional intelligence to create resonance with others. Resonant leaders are attuned to the needs and dreams of the people they lead. They create conditions in which people can excel. They listen to life's wake-up calls and enhance their capacity for excellence. In Becoming a Resonant Leader the authors provide a clear process and a wealth of exercises to help you develop your emotional intelligence and sustain resonance in your relationships. Reflecting 20 years of research and work with executives, the exercises in this practical audio resource help you: Develop your emotional intelligence Create a vision of your ideal self and desired future Articulate your strengths and values Craft a plan for intentional change Build resonance with your team, organization and community Relevant and inspiring, Becoming a Resonant Leader will help you chart a journey to better leadership.
